

Social events during the past week have been conspicuous by their absence, the season being rather one of preparation than of action. But if one may judge by the rumors heard, the next few weeks will be busy enough to make up for even the dullness of the autumn season, which has been rather quieter than usual. A few luncheons, a card party or two, a dinner, a hop at the park, a straw ride and a few informal evenings, and the record of the week is told.

Mrs. Ralph Hoag entertained on Friday morning at a very charming card party. The house was decorated in autumn flowers, asters and nasturtiums being used in profusion, and several games of "30" were played by the 25 guests. Mrs. Charles Rood was the successful winner of the first prize.

On Tuesday evening, at Fort Douglas, Colonel and Mrs. Root gave one of the most enjoyable hops of the year at the fort ball. The affair was in honor of Colonel Root's birthday, and a very delightful evening was spent by the large number of guests.

Mrs. Casper L. Robertson, accompanied by her two sons and the Misses Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Carson of Omaha, leave this morning for Montreal, on their way to Europe to spend some months.

Mr. Will Bennett has gone to Oregon.

The Misses Nelson spent Wednesday in Ogden, as the guests of Mr. Peery, who entertained a few friends by a drive up the canyon.

Mrs. Ralph Hoag was the hostess on Friday afternoon of another "60" party. The decorations were the same as at the morning affair, and ten games were played at the eight tables, after which delicious refreshments were served and prizes awarded to Mrs. Darling and Miss Agnes Judge.

Mr. Hoyt Sherman has returned from Portland.

Miss Catherine Lowe spent several days of the past week in Ogden.

Mrs. and Miss Abbott, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lowe, returned to their home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Samuel Hughes entertained a few luncheoners on Saturday afternoon, after which a long ride in the country was taken, the young ladies being accompanied by a few men, who joined them after business hours.

Mr. Miles Varian and Mr. James Hogle left on Saturday morning for the east. Mr. Varian will go to Philadelphia, where he will enter the medical college.

Mr. Robert Kenyon and a few of his young friends enjoyed a moonlight straw ride on Friday evening, returning to the home of the Messrs. Tarpey for supper. Mr. Kenyon's guests were Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Madge Westervelt, Miss Jessie Young, the Misses Howat, Miss Ella Atkinson, Mr. Harry Atkinson, the Messrs. Tarpey and Mr. Arthur Hudson.

Mr. Ernest Bamberger, Mr. McChrystal and Mr. Sam Paul are among those who left for the east during the week.

Miss Kate Williams and Mr. George Wallace expect to leave next week for Bryn Mawr and Yale.

Dr. Linday is at the Fox ranch in Idaho for the hunting season.

Mr. John Francis Sharp entertained his friends on Thursday by giving an informal musical at his home on East Brigham street. The evening was delightfully spent in listening to fine selections, both vocal and instrumental.

The Misses Young and Mrs. William Reid spent Saturday in Ogden.

Mrs. Thomas Carter has been entertaining guests from Omaha during the week.

Mr. Arthur and Mr. Jack Royce left Wednesday for school in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Grand Young left yesterday morning for New York to be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. G. H. Peters has issued invitations to a reception to be given next Tuesday afternoon. The guests of honor will be Mrs. and the Misses Hill.

Miss Stella Salisbury took her departure for the east this morning, where she will continue her studies.

Mrs. Fabian returned on Wednesday from Boston, where she has spent the past three months visiting relatives.

Miss Jeanne Crook left this morning for Park City, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Lamb for the next three weeks.

The moonlight nights were taken advantage of by bicyclists, who were out in great numbers every evening. Several informal suppers were given, and many are being planned for this week, though they will be rather earlier affairs than those of the summer months.

Miss Clara Colton entertained at dinner on Thursday evening, the affair being a very delightful one in every way. The guests were Miss McCormick, Mrs. Clifton, Miss Allie, Miss Thurn, Mr. Richardson, Mr. B. S. Varian, Mr. Lyon and Mr. Westervelt.

Prominent among those who will be the guests of Mrs. Paul at her new hotel on West First South after Oct. 1 are: Judge and Mrs. Rives, Miss Rives, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jameson, Miss McMillan, Mr. Robert J. Helton, Mr. Caustlin Brown and Mr. H. F. Cleaver.

A very charming dinner was given by Miss McCormick during the week.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing will depart for the east next Thursday, to be absent several months.

Mr. Rob Harkness leaves for New York next week, where he will enter the Columbia law school.

Mrs. Whitney, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. H. Baneroff during the summer, will return to her home in the east next Wednesday.

Among those who returned from Brighton last week were the Misses Anderson and Miss Pauline Groo.

Mrs. Kennard and Miss Jennie Kennard leave for Denver soon.

Mrs. C. E. Wantland will spend the winter in Denver, leaving Salt Lake early next week.

Superintendent Reid of the Salt Lake City railroad, exhibited his generosity Monday evening by running up to the fort with an illuminated motor and trailer, capturing the children of the post and report with them to him at 7:45 for duty. The children obeyed the order promptly and reported with 40 children for the duty of trolley riding. Adjutant Cartwright took in the situation and instructed the band to accompany the children and furnish music. A run was made to St. Mark's hospital, where the band rendered a few selections and the children gave three cheers to the community. From thence a run was made to the residence of General Penrose, where a selection was played and three cheers given the general, after which the party returned to the fort and voted Superintendent Reid the next best man to Santa Claus.

After Oct. 1 Mrs. William Reid will be at home at 463 East Brigham street.

Mr. Will Lawrence was in town during the week.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Florence and Ida Moele, Mr. F. C. Moele and Mr. J. S. Sears entertained at a large dancing party. The grounds were brilliantly lighted with Chinese lan-terms and dancing was indulged in until a late hour, to the strains of Olsen's orchestra. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room and punch in the hall by the Misses Lott and Gertrude Moele. Cards were provided for those who did not care for dancing, and about 100 guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Mr. L. B. Rogers, Mr. J. R. Walter and Messrs. Rob. Charles and Bert Walker are hunting in Idaho.

Mrs. C. Louise Boyden has returned from her prolonged visit in the east and is now at the Cullen.

On Friday, Sept. 25, the art section of the Ladies' Literary club will be represented as follows:
First—"Life and Works of the Universal Genius, Leonardo da Vinci," by Miss Wallace.
Second—"Michael Angelo, the Sculptor," by Miss Lawrence.
Third—"Raphael," by Miss Adelaide Nason.

Yale's "Twelve Temptations," the extravaganza to be given at the Salt Lake theatre next Wednesday evening, will undoubtedly draw a large audience. It comes from San Francisco after a two weeks' run, well spoken of.

Mr. Augustus, the new physical director at the Y. M. C. A., was tendered a most enjoyable reception at the club rooms on Tuesday evening. Music formed the chief entertainment.

A complimentary concert was given by Mr. John Sharp on Tuesday evening, in the Twentieth ward school house preparatory to his departure for New York, where he will cultivate his voice under the direction of Professor Sauvage.

Dr. Pinkerton has returned from a business trip to Idaho and Oregon.

The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hamilton was celebrated at their residence, 574 Second street, Tuesday evening, Sept. 14. The evening passed pleasantly with vocal and instrumental music. The decorations consisted of palms, asters and dahlias. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Castleton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Staines, Mrs. John Burt, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Castleton, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Anson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oppenhaw, Mr. and Mrs. James Castleton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Castleton, Mrs. Hannah Hamilton, Misses Allie and Lillie Bittner, Mollie Conley, Edith Snowling, Merry Anson, Alice Castleton, Messrs. Allen Burt, Percy Goddard.

Horseback riding is now dividing honors with cycling, and promises to develop into a fad with the fair ones. It has received a big impetus through the removal of one of Kimball Bros.

stables from the Park to this city, and Lawrence Kimball now has a flourishing riding school, and is out nearly every evening chaperoning parties. Last Tuesday he escorted the following on delightful rides over the city: Miss Ada Ireland, Miss Helen Ireland, Miss Maude Parker, Miss Edith Parker, Miss Ardelle Cummings and Miss Belle Callahan of Syracuse, N. Y.

Last night Mr. Kimball had out another party of eight young ladies.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing left yesterday for a two months' trip east.

Mrs. Harry McCulloch, who has been the guest of Miss Smith of the Salt Lake schools, departed last evening for Nelson, B. C., after a visit here of three months.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney entertained the members of the Eighteenth ward choir at their home on Friday evening. Besides the singers there were present Bishop Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barton. The evening was passed listening to various musical selections, and a pleasant feature was the playing of Mr. Arthur Shepherd, the brilliant pianist and composer, who has lately joined the musical forces of the city, and taken up his residence in the Eighteenth ward.

Judith and Mrs. John W. Judd announced the engagement of their daughter Lee to Mr. Stephen H. Babcock. The wedding will take place in the very near future.

Mrs. Charles G. King, Jr., left yesterday for the east, to dance her daughter Edna in school, and visit friends there for several weeks.
